

Pachyphragma macrophyllum

(Cardamine asarifolia. Thlapsi macrophyllum)

Understated but a great foil to Hellebores and bulbs. The leaves are rounded forming good spreading groundcover. Deep green taking on purple veins in Winter. Open cylinders of small pure white flowers on stems about 1 foot high. In shade they really shine out. best in shade

www.dorsetperennials.co.uk